

I am writing to state that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The large volume of unwanted solicitors contacting prior to the Privacy law were in amounts of 7 to 8 per night. Now with the Privacy Law, we receive maybe one or two every two weeks. The Privacy Law enables us to have enjoyable family evenings to not be interrupted by unwanted calls.